2018 - Employment Bills after Veto Deadline

Employment Practices and Employee Rights

ACT 108

Pay Secrecy; Pay Transparency – When determining the salary, benefits, or other compensation for a job applicant, prohibits prospective employers from:

- inquiring about an applicant’s salary history, or
- relying on the applicant’s salary history.

However, allows for (1) discussion over the applicant’s expectations with respect to salary, benefits, and other compensation and (2) consideration and/or verification of an applicant’s salary history if the applicant voluntarily and without prompting discloses salary history. Also provides exceptions for individuals who apply for internal transfers or promotions with their current employer; background checks; and public employees who are covered by a collective bargaining agreement.

Finally, prohibits employers from retaliating or discriminating against an employee for disclosing the employee’s wages or discussing and inquiring about the wages of other employees, or aiding or encouraging other employees to exercise such rights. Effective January 1, 2019.

ACT 109

Paid Family Leave; Sunrise Analysis – Requires the legislative reference bureau to conduct and complete a sunrise analysis to assist the legislature in establishing a paid family leave program in Hawaii. The sunrise analysis shall consist of the following:

- comparative analysis of other states’ paid leave models, including temporary disability insurance;
- Hawaii-based cost breakdowns by model on projected impacts to employers by size, impacts to employees, and estimated impacts on the cost of compliance as it related to other employer mandates; and
- examination of options for compliance and enforcement of the proposed paid family leave program with recommendations for additional staffing and support for the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations (“DLIR”) to effectuate a program.

Provides that the analysis shall be submitted to the legislature no later than September 1, 2019. Effective July 1, 2018.

Workers’ Compensation (“WC”)

ACT 107

Controverted Claims; Firefighter Coverage for Cancer – In the case of a controverted WC claim, requires the private health care plan of an injured worker to pay for medical care, services, and supplies. When the claim is accepted or determined to be compensable, requires the employer to reimburse the private health care plan and injured worker.
For claims for cancer that are covered by Hawaii’s workers’ compensation law and involving firefighters with at least five years of service, provides that employers shall be liable for medical care, services, and supplies for a minimum of 110% and a maximum of 150% of fees prescribed in the Medicare Resource Based Relative Value Scale applicable to Hawaii. Effective upon approval.
